Kelvenne Trail

Medium 9.7 km
39 m 2-4 h

Great sandy beaches in sheltered bays | Kettle hole pond | Päijänne National Park

The Kelvenne Trail passes through the Päijänne National Park, taking walkers from beautiful sandy beaches to peaceful forests and tops of high eskers. It's an easy-to-follow path with lovely views. Kelvenne is an esker island formed during the Ice Age, and effects of the Ice Age can also be seen in the eskers, kettle holes and sheltered bays.

Description

The start and end points of the Kelvenne trail are in the south of the island (Kirkkosalmi) and in the north (Likolahti), and the trail can be walked in either direction. The trail passes through the entire island, winding along beaches as well as high eskers. Between Koukunlahti and Supanlahti, the trail splits into two: one that goes up on the esker and one that follows the western shore. These two branches come together again after about 500 metres. There are several nice resting places along the trail, in sheltered bays and on fine sandy beaches. In the middle of the island, there is a kettle hole that has formed a small lake. The trail also passes pine swamps oozing the charming scent of Labrador marsh tea. The Kelvenne island consists of beautiful esker and lake landscapes. Most of the forest is dry peaty forest with sections of broad-leaved forest near the lake.

© Johannes Siiponen

Good to know

There are three wild camping sites on the Kelvenne island: Hinttolanhiekka, Nimetön and Isohieta. Kelvenne is also a great destination for a canoe or a boat trip. There are many nice, sandy beaches, for example, in Kirkkosalmi, Hinttolanhiekka, Kyyränlahti, Isohieta, and on the eastern shore of the island, at the northern end of the trail. There are eight campfire sites along the trail, and all of these sites have toilets. In addition, there is a large, sheltered cooking facility in Kirkkosalmi. Things to remember to take with you: toilet paper and, if you are planning to have a fire, a knife and matches. The nearest tourist services are in Padasjoki.

Difficulty

Due to the elevation and rocky path sections, the Kelvenne Trail is rated Medium. The trail can be walked in running shoes, although in some rocky places hiking boots can be a better alternative.

Accessing the starting point

In the summertime, you can access the Kelvenne island on a lake cruise or alternatively by boat taxi, which can be booked from Kiuasniemi Marina and Kullasmarina in Padasjoki and from Lehmonkärki in Asikkala. Canoeing equipment can be rented, for example, from Padasjoen Latu ry. There are several excursion harbours for those arriving with their own boat.

Päijätsalo

Medium 4.1 km 37 m 2-3 h

19th century observation tower | Beautiful lake and forest scenery | Pyydysniemi beach & campfire site

© Outdoors Finland

© Johannes Siiponen

The Päijätsalo area in Sysmä offers several alternatives for a day trip in varied forest and lake sceneries.

The longest circular trail comprises 4.1 km of atmospheric forests and shores of Lake Päijänne. Part of the trail extends to the Päijänne National Park, and its main attraction is the observation tower built in the 19th century. Situated in the middle of the island, the tower offers an impressive view over Päijänne.

Description

The trail starts from the Päijätsalo parking area or, if accessed by boat, from Pyydysniemi. There are several paths in the area, and you can plan your route as you wish. The terrain consists mainly of peaceful coniferous forest with sections of broad-leaved trees near the lake. Thanks to the elevated grounds in the central part of the island, and of course the magnificent scenery, this is a nice hiking destination with varying terrain. There is a campfire site in Pyydysniemi, which belongs to Päijänne National Park. The lovely observation tower can be reached from both starting points.

Good to know

The trail can be accessed during the snow-free seasons. There is a campfire site, toilet and firewood in Pyydysniemi, which is also a great place to swim. Things to remember to take with you: toilet paper and, if you are planning to have a fire, a knife and matches. Various services, attractions, jetties and a boat fuelling station can be found in the nearby tourist businesses of Pinxnmäki and Ilola, which are open in the summertime. The nearest shops are in the centre of Sysmä, 7 km from the trail's starting point.

Difficulty

The trails are mainly in good condition and clearly marked. The most challenging sections are the rather steep incline to the observation tower and a rather rocky path by the lake north of Pyydysniemi. The trail can be walked in running shoes.

How to get there

Those arriving to the area with their own car start the trail from the Päijätsalo parking area. From the centre of Sysmä, continue to Supellontie (5 km), then turn left onto Päijätsalontie (2 km) and then right onto Sorolantie. Those arriving by boat start the trail from Pyydysniemi. There is a jetty for small boats.

Kammiovuori

Hard 4 km 120 m 2-3 h

Spectacular views from Kammiovuori hilltop | Boulder "Linta" | Hiskias's Cave

Located in Vintturi, Sysmä, Kammiovuori ("Chamber Mountain") is the highest spot in the Eastern Häme (Tavastia) region, offering breathtaking views over the region's forests and lakes. The trail passes through atmospheric, hilly forest terrain. Interesting sights along the path include the impressive, seven-metre boulder named "Linta", and Hiskias's cave. The cave is named after a vagabond who, according to local legend, used to live in the cave at the beginning of the 20th century. Despite the challenging terrain, Kammiovuori is a popular destination for families with children, as well.

Description

The trail starts from the parking area and goes up through a mixed, mostly coniferous forest towards Kammiovuori. A clearly marked path leads to a lean-to shelter and campfire site. This is a good place to stop and rest before continuing the climb. After the lean-to shelter, the trail divides into a circular trail leading past Hiskias's cave and the boulder Linta all the way to the top of the Kammiovuori hill. The view from the hilltop is spectacular, but be very careful near the edge of the cliff. The trail passes through very varied landscape from groves to dry pine forests and romantic spruce forests.

Good to know

The trail can be walked in running shoes, although hiking boots can be a better alternative for this varied terrain. One of the Struve Geodetic Arc triangulators is close to the summit of Kammiovuori. You can see several really large ant hills along the trail. Those arriving by boat can use the jetty in Vintturi village, 3 km from the trail. The nearest shops are in Sysmä.

Difficulty

This trail is rated Hard. The rocky sections with large stubs and steep inclines make it challenging. Despite this, Kammiovuori is a popular destination for families with children, as well. Extra caution should always be applied near the edge of the hill. The trail is accessible during the snow-free seasons. There are support ropes to help climbing at the steepest sections.

How to get there

You can get to the starting point of the trail by car. From Sysmä, take road 612 towards Luhanka and drive 24 km, then turn right onto Vintturintie and drive 2 km, turn left onto Nutturintie and continue about 1 km to the Kammiovuori parking.

START AND END POINTS: Kammiovuori parking, Nutturintie 104, Sysmä, N61 41.443 E25 41.366

TRAIL MARKINGS: Painted blue and white marks

Juustopolku Trail

Medium 17 km 60 m 1-2 days

Kupparinkivi boulder | Romantic spruce forest | Korvenlampi lean-to

Juustopolku is an old connection trail from Heinola to Vuolenkoski. Leading through a fairy tale-like spruce forest, it helps you forget about all your troubles. The trail is suitable for a day trip, but it is also possible to stay overnight in the lean-to shelter. There is an impressive boulder, Kupparinkivi ("Copper's Rock"), by the trail. And if you pay close attention, you may see traces of beavers that have lived in the area.

Description

Juustopolku starts from Jyränkö, Heinola, by Lake Konnivesi. The terrain varies from paths to forest roads. Soon after the starting point, the trail leads to a spruce forest, and later it passes through lichen-covered rocks, groves and heathlands. The trail ends in the village of Vuolenkoski. There are two lean-to shelters along the trail: the Korvenlampi shelter in a beautiful lookout spot and Läpiä shelter in the forest. Korvenlampi is about 3.8 km from the starting point, and Läpiä is about 9 km from the starting point.

Good to know

In rainy weather, there are puddles on the trail, so waterproof shoes are a better alternative than running shoes. Bring a knife and matches to make a fire. The Juustopolku Hike is arranged every autumn, including bus transportation to both ends of the trail. Lots of berries and mushrooms can be found along the trail, and they can be picked freely.

Difficulty

There are some hilly and rocky sections on the trail, so sturdy shoes are recommended. In general, the trail is well maintained and clearly marked. Some sections have duckboards. Please take the duration of the trail into consideration and bring a sufficient supply of food and water. There are some lumbering sites along the trail, and in these places you must pay close attention to the correct route.

How to get there

You can start the Juustopolku trail from the centre of Heinola: walk down Tampilahdenkatu until the crossing with Muikkuojankatu. This is where the trail starts to follow the lakeshore. Heinola has good bus connections, and the starting point of the trail is within walking distance of bus stops. The nearest is the Jyränkö stop. In Vuolenkoski, the trail starts from the Vuolenkoski school or sports field. Vuolenkoski cannot be accessed by public transportation.

STARTING POINT: Tampilahdenkatu 35, 18150 Heinola, N61 11.309 E26 02.207

Paistjärvi, Pirunkirkko

Medium 4.4 km
58 m 2-3 h

Impressive rock formation Pirunkirkko | Pristine lakes | Wilderness

The Pirunkirkko area in Paistjärvi is a hidden treasure for hikers in Heinola. The Paistjärvi hiking area in the north-eastern part of Heinola provides a great setting for hikers with its wilderness landscape and pristine lakes. The Pirunkirkko ("Devil's Church") rock formation is a breathtaking sight, even for seasoned nature lovers.

Description

The trail to Pirunkirkko starts from the Niinilampi parking area. The first section of the trail follows a forest road, from which it turns onto a path. The path passes through about 300 m of hilly forest terrain and leads to Lake Iso-Vuorttunen. The next 300 m section of the trail follows the shore of the lake, and the final section of 200 m leads through forest to the Pirunkirkko formation.

This is a great place to have a break and enjoy the impressive view. There is a bench and a compost toilet at Pirunkirkko, but no campfire site. From Pirunkirkko, you can return to the starting point using the same route or continue on the circular trail towards the Simonlampi parking area.

The first section after Pirunkirkko is a 300-m path towards Lake Iso-Vuorttunen. This hilly section leads through beautiful, lichen-covered terrain. The most difficult incline is right after Pirunkirkko. After the wilderness and lake shore, the trail leads to the forest and onto the Simonlammi parking area, which is about 600 m ahead. The section from the lake to the parking area is easier and more level. North of the trail, there is a small pond called Simonlampi, surrounded by swamp. From the Simonlampi parking area, the trail continues 2.2 km along a forest road back to the Niinilampi parking area.

Good to know

Apart from the Pirunkirkko Trail, there are other walking trails and campfire sites in the Paistjärvi area. See outdoors.fi for more information. The only campfire site along the Pirunkirkko Trail is next to the Niinilampi parking area. There are three toilets along the trail: at Niinilampi, Pirunkirkko and the Simonlampi parking area.

Difficulty

The trail includes very hilly sections and varied terrain. Some of the stairs and duckboards of the trail have been repaired during autumn 2016 to make it easier to pass the most difficult sections. The most challenging part is the path west of Lake Iso-Vuorttunen; the other sections consist of fairly even paths or forest roads.

How to get there

Paistjärvi is in a remote area that is only reachable by car. There are no public transportation connections.

DRIVING DIRECTIONS TO NIINILAMPI PARKING AREA: From road E75 take road 46 towards Kouvola (5 km), turn onto road 4143 (19 km), when you reach Lake Sonnanen, turn left onto Kesäöntie (1.6 km), then turn right towards Pirunkirkko (0.5 km).

STARTING POINTS:

Hartola, Kuninkaanpolku Trail

Easy 3.8 km
20 m 1-3 h

Pristine Tainionvirta river | Itä-Häme Museum | Atmospheric peatland forest

The Kuninkaanpolku Trail in Hartola is a fascinating mix of nature and culture. Stop on the Ekonkoski arched bridge to see trout swimming in the bright water. Continue with a relaxing walk through the pleasant peatland forest. Cross a gently rocking suspension bridge to the lovely surroundings of the Itä-Häme Museum, which showcases the varied history of the region.

Description

Kuninkaanpolku Trail can be started from the Linna Hotel or Itä-Häme Museum. When starting from the Linna Hotel, the first section of the trail passes lovely old buildings belonging to the folk high school Itä-Hämeen opisto. From there, the trail follows an idyllic country road towards the arched bridge crossing the pristine Ekonkoski rapids in River Tainionvirta. After the bridge, the trail continues along the road until it turns right into the forest. The path leading through the forest is clearly marked. The landscape consists of peatland forest, and you can give your feet a soothing peat treatment if you wish. After the forest section, the trail follows a field to the sports ground, from where a suspended bridge across River Tainionvirta leads to the beautiful surroundings of Itä-Häme Museum. After the museum, the trail continues to the old Hartola Church monument and makes one more turn towards the river before leading to the Kaikulantie road and back to the starting point along a lovely birch path.

Good to know

There are two swimming beaches along the trail: next to the sports field, and near Kaikulantie. In addition, there is a winter swimming place near the museum. In the winter, there are ski tracks in the forest sections of the trail and, therefore, it can only be walked during the snow-free seasons. The town of Hartola with its services is quite close to the trail. River Tainionvirta is also a good canoeing destination (see p. 16) and one of the most popular rapids fishing places in Southern Finland.

Difficulty

The trail consists of paths, dirt roads and pedestrian routes, and is very easy to walk. The hardest sections are between Ekonkoski rapids and the sports grounds, where the path leads through fairly damp swamp terrain. For this reason, waterproof shoes are recommended, unless the weather has been very dry.

How to get there

The trail can be started from the Linna Hotel or Itä-Häme Museum. Hartola has good bus connections.

STARTING POINT:

Linna Hotelli, Kaikulantie 86, Hartola, N61 34.269, E26 02.183

Aurinko-Ilves

Medium 31 km 54 m 1-2 days

Lake view from the top of Aurinkovuori | Deep kettle holes | Kurhila village's cultural landscape & romantic brooks

Aurinko-Ilves is a lovely connection trail leading from the beautiful Vääkysy Canal area through paths, forest tracks and old forest roads to the large forests and extensive trail network of the Evo Hiking Area. The scenery along the trail range from esker forest in Aurinkovuori to spectacular lake views, and the charming Kurhila village. When approaching to Evo, the murmuring forest brooks create a lovely backdrop for the walk.

Good to know

From the end point of the trail, you can continue using Evo Hiking Area's extensive trail network or onto the Päijänne-Ilves connecting trail leading to Padasjoki (see page 14). There are four lean-to shelters with campfire sites and compost toilets along the trail. The impressive deep kettle holes "Syrjänsuupat" are in the northern part of Aurinkovuori. To see them, you need to make a separate 1.5-km trip. In the summertime, there is a lot to see in the Old Vääkysy area, including the canal, coffee houses and shops.

Difficulty

Some sections of the trail include difficult terrain, and there are some steep hills. After heavy rain, the soil is soft. It is advisable to have a map with you, because some sections of the trail have tall grass and worn trail markings. Due to the length of the trail, you should reserve plenty of time and food for the trip.

How to get there

The Aurinko-Ilves trail can be started from Päijännetalo or Sports Centre in Vääkysy. There are good bus connections to the starting point. The nearest bus stop is in the old centre of Vääkysy. The end point of the trail is in a forest area, from where you can return by car (e.g. taxi) or continue hiking in the Evo Hiking area or along the Päijänne-Ilves trail leading to Padasjoki.

Description

After departure from the Vääkysy Sports Centre, the trail climbs steeply to the Aurinkovuori hill ("Sun Mountain"). Close to the starting point, the Aurinkovuori lean-to and lookout spot offer a great view over Lake Päijänne. From Aurinkovuori, the trail continues towards the deep kettle holes "Syrjänsuupat" and the Kuurnamäki lean-to which, in turn, offers a nice view over the Finnish rural landscape. The next attraction along the trail is the Kurhila village, where the trail passes the coffee shop Vanha Kevär and leads to Seurantalo Kuhilas, a camping site with a sheltered cooking facility. From there, the trail mainly follows old forest roads with short sections of paths. There are two lean-to shelters in atmospheric places by brooks: Uusimylly and Kaupinsaari. The trail ends at Haarjärvi parking area.

Päijänne-Ilves

Medium
13 km
78 m
3-5 h

Tuomasvuori observation tower | Frans Joosef Pond, nature reserve area | Forest brooks and ponds

The Päijänne-Ilves trail forms a connection to the Evo Hiking Area. It contains nicely varying terrain, including villages, forests, swamps and dry peaty forests. The Cudgel War memorial adds a touch of history, and Frans Joosef Pond's nature reserve lets you experience pristine nature. Another noteworthy landmark is an exceptionally large boulder close to the end of the trail.

Description

The diverse Päijänne-Ilves trail starts from Padasjoki Marina. It includes paved pedestrian and bicycle routes, gravel road, forest road, fields and forest paths. The start of the trail is easy to walk and there is not much elevation. Before the middle section of the trail, in the village of Nyystölä, there is a Cudgel War memorial, after which you can make a separate trip to the Nyystölä birdwatching tower. The end of the trail is more difficult, as it includes more incline and rocky places, and the scenery also becomes more forested. There is one lean-to shelter along the trail, Nuijamiehenkolo, about 10 km from the starting point. There is also a compost toilet next to the shelter. After the lean-to, the trail continues towards the Frans Joosef Pond nature reserve and on towards Tarus, where there is a campfire site, swimming beach, camping site and parking area.

Good to know

From the end point of the trail, you can continue using the extensive trail networks of Tarus and Evo Hiking Areas or onto the Aurinko-Ilves connecting trail leading to Vääkky (see page 12). There is one lean-to shelter along the trail. The Tuomastornit observation towers near Padasjoki Marina are definitely worth visiting. A wide range of services is available at the Padasjoki Marina and in the centre of Padasjoki at the beginning of the trail.

Difficulty

This medium trail takes about 3 to 5 hours to walk. It can be walked in running shoes, but in rainy weather and early in the morning the grass is wet, so waterproof shoes are recommended. Due to the challenging rocky sections and inclines, hiking boots may be a better choice. In addition, take a map, knife, matches and toilet paper with you.

How to get there

The trail starts from Padasjoki Marina. You can travel by bus to the centre of Padasjoki, which is about 2 km from the starting point. The end of the trail in Tarus is about 3 km from the nearest bus stop (which is on highway 24).

Tainionvirta canoeing route

Medium 43 km
14 m 1-4 days

Bright water | Beautiful countryside | Good fishing opportunities

The canoeing route from Hartola to Sysmä passes through a cultural heritage landscape and offers an unforgettable adventure in the calmly flowing river with sounds of aquatic birds in the background. The route is suitable even for beginners. Most of the rapids are easily passable, and the most difficult sections can be skipped by walking along the shore. The route makes for a good weekend trip, and it can be accessed from spring until late autumn.

Description

KOSKENNISKA – GASTHAUS CAMPING KOSKENNIEMI 3.6 KM

The first section passes through inhabited areas. The first shoots are at the very beginning of the route, in Ekonkoski. The Ekonkoski rapids are approached using the right-hand side of the river, and the rapids are shot on the right-hand side. After this, the route continues in a calm stream past the Itä-Häme Museum towards the Highway 4 underpass, where you can dock at a coffee house's landing stage. The next shoot is the quietly flowing Vuoteenkoski next to Gasthaus-Camping Koskenniemi.

GASTHAUS CAMPING KOSKENNIEMI – KEIJULANKOSKI LEAN-TO SHELTER 4.0 KM

The route continues in an easy stream until it reaches its most difficult section, Vanhanmyllynkoski rapids. This is a relatively long shoot section including a turn to the left. It's a good idea to familiarise yourself in advance with the currents and rocks, and the exact course you'll take. The rapids can also be passed by carrying the canoe on the shore. The first canoe-carrying route is the Hotilankoski dam before the Keijulankoski lean-to shelter. The landing site is on the right-hand side of the dam. The landing site for the Keijulankoski lean-to is before the rapids on the right-hand shore.

KEIJULANKOSKI LEAN-TO SHELTER – KIRVESKOSKI DAM 3.8 KM

In the Keijulankoski section, the canoeing course is on the left-hand side of the rapids. After this, the route continues in an easy stream through field landscapes all the way to the Kirveskoski dam. The landing place in Kirveskoski is on the right-hand shore. The easiest way to get your canoe to the launching site is to pull it in the brook for the last 20 metres before the landing stage.

KIRVESKOSKI DAM – HAAVISTONNIEMI LEAN-TO SHELTER (HUUTONIEMI) 5.6 KM

Approximately 700 metres downstream after the dam, it seems as though the river divides into two. Pass the surface rocks from the right. The final 2.9-km section of this leg is in a lake.

HAAVISTONNIEMI LEAN-TO SHELTER (HUUTONIEMI) – MAATIAISKOSKI DAM 9.9 KM

This leg of the route consists of both lake and river sections. There are three resting places: the Joutsjärvi lean-to shelter, Enojärvi landing, and Krouvin Camping's landing. If the wind is high, it is safer to stay close to the lake shore. Before the Maatiaiskoski dam, there is a river section that divides twice. Always choose the left side. Pass under the Nuoramoinen bridge on the right-hand side. The landing site is quite close to the dam, on the right-hand shore of the river.

MAATIAISKOSKI DAM – ROUVASAARI ISLAND 3.3 KM

This is the longest, most open lake section of the route, so you must pay attention to wind conditions when choosing your course. You can pull the canoe ashore on Rouvasaari island. On the northwest side of the island, there is a sheltered landing place, whereas the northeastern side has lots of surface rocks.

ROUVASAARI – VIRTAANKOSKI DAM 4.8 KM

The route continues across Lake Nuoramoijsjärvi onto the last river section. Before the Virtaankoski dam, there is a 3-km river section with easy shoots. At the dam, the landing site is on the left-hand shore. You must carry the canoe about 50 metres to pass the dam. This can also serve as the end point of the canoe trip for those who don't want to complete the final, longer lake section.

VIRTAANKOSKI DAM – CAMPING SYSMÄ 7.6 KM

The first kilometre of this final leg is a river section with an easy stream. Then, you paddle along the shores of the lake for about 6.6 km and arrive in the centre of Sysmä. There are no common resting places along this leg.

Good to know

Canoes are available for rent in Hartola. The Kuninkaanpolku trail (see p. 11) goes close to the river at the start of the route, and the Itä-Häme Museum by the suspended bridge is also worth visiting.

Tainionvirta is one of the most popular rapids fishing destinations in Southern Finland for both fly and spinning fishers. A special permit and the State Fisheries Management Fee are required for fishing in the river. Permits are sold separately for the Hartola and Virtaa areas. The lakes along the route are also rich in fish. On the lakes you are allowed to fish with the State Fisheries Management Fee. Angling with a float and bait is covered by everyman's rights on the lakes, but not in river.

Difficulty

There are six Class I rapids along the route, as well as four dams where you have to carry the canoe. During high water, the Ekonkoski and Vanhanmyllynkoski shoots have quite a strong flow, and should be followed from the shore before attempting them. All rapids can be skipped by walking along the shore. There are four dams that must be skipped on ground by carrying the canoe. In lake sections, wind conditions must be taken into account when determining the course.

How to get there

Apart from the official starting point Koskenniska, the route can be started in Koskenniemi, Keijulankoski, Kirveskoski, or Krouvi Camping, for example. Hartola has good bus connections. The other starting points can be reached by car.

The route follows the eastern side of Lake Päijänne and showcases the most picturesque Finnish lake-land and countryside. The Pulkkilanharju section of the route belongs to the Päijänne National Park. There the road goes on a narrow esker surrounded by open, pristine lake areas on both sides.  Cultural heritage area | Esker and wilderness nature | Hiking opportunities on islands

The national urban park showcases the best of Heinola in the very centre of the town: historical attractions, culture, peaceful nature, magnificent water areas, recreational areas, fascinating architecture and cozy parks. The urban park forms a unique entity with something for everyone to enjoy!

The centre of Heinola is a well-preserved example of Gustavian grid planning. Many parks date back to the 18th and 19th centuries. The parks are connected to impressive buildings representing different periods of time, such as the Aschan House and its garden, Seminar buildings, Harju pavilion, WPK-talo (old Voluntary Fire Brigade's House), Art Museum, Local Museum, church and vicarage. The railway station park area, including residential buildings and a water tower, as well as the two bridges that have become symbols of Heinola, emphasise the town's importance as a hub of transport. The actual park areas are connected to the city's forest north of River Jyrängönvirta, which offer excellent opportunities for recreational activities. The consistency and diversity of green areas make the Heinola National Urban Park unique.

A national urban park is a comprehensive entity comprised of valuable cultural and natural landscapes and recreational areas in an urban environment. The municipality in question is committed to preserving and maintaining these areas. National urban parks can be seen as the urban counterpart of national parks. # Sysmä Architectural Heritage Trail

 Fascinating examples of architecture from different ages

The guided tour of architectural sights around the centre of Sysmä is a convenient way to learn about the town's history and architecture. In total, four different architectural heritage tours are available in Sysmä; here, we introduce a combination of two of them.

Architectural heritage tour destinations

1 Pusukuja, Maalarintie and Poikkitie area

Step into the spirit of old Sysmä; a typical Finnish village with small-scale residential buildings, outbuildings and gardens.

2 Lopperi Lopperintie 1. Built in 1843.

Lopperi is one of the oldest estate houses in Sysmä. The estate includes a guesthouse building, staples, two-storeyed warehouse, drying barn and a cowshed that is even older than the main building. Lopperi was the venue of Sysmä's first municipal council meeting in 1866, and it has also served as a guesthouse and local courthouse.

3 Theatre house Vaihkyläntie 1. Built in 1898.

When completed, this castle-like, beautifully decorated building custom-made for the Sysmä Savings Bank was a rarity. In addition to the bank, it has hosted a post office, library, civil guard headquarters, and a furniture store. Today, it has been restored to its original beauty and serves as a meeting and conference venue.

4 Villa Sarkia Myllymäentie 1. Built in the early 1900s.

This house was built to serve as the home of the bank manager, but it is not as decorative as the bank building itself. It has also been used as a dentist's practice and a daycare centre. Now, it is a writer residence.

FURTHER INFORMATION AND DETAILED DESCRIPTIONS:

5 Aurinkola Valittulantie 77 Pusukuja. Built in 1938.

This building was transferred from Helsinki and set up in its current place around 1938. The name of the house, Aurinkola, means "Sunny place", and it is, indeed, a bright spot in the Sysmä townscape. The building has been used for various purposes but now it has been restored and serves as a private residence.

6 Harmaala Lilumäentie 1/Valittulantie. Built in 1863.

One of the oldest buildings in Sysmä, Harmaala ("Grey place") accommodated a shop until 1930. The harmonious architecture follows the same tradition as that of Aurinkola.

7 Suurkylä Manor Suurkyläntie 2. Built in 1801.

Built for Hans Anders Wijkman, this manor, its outbuildings and old trees form a prestigious sight in the Sysmä village. This is the only preserved manor in the central village, and a valuable remembrance of the rich manor history of the area.

8 Church of St. Olaf

Kirkkokuja 1. Built in the early 16th century.

Dating back to the early 16th century (if not further), this is one of the oldest churches in Finland. In the course of its existence, the church has undergone several phases of construction. The Medieval, natural stone-built church is an impressive sight and churches like this are rare in the Finnish inland east of Lake Päijänne.

9 Sysmä Museum of Local History and Culture

Makasiinimäentie 4. Built in 1855.

Sysmä municipality's grain storehouse (entitled Leipälä, "Bread place") was built about a decade before the famine of the 1860s. It served as a granary that provided grain for local residents on interest during the challenging times. Today, the building is home to the Sysmä Museum of Local History and Culture maintained by the local association Sysmä Seura.
